FORT BIDWELL

The Post to be Regarrisoned.

A recent Washington dispatch contains the following relative to Fort Bidwell in Surprise Valley.

A short time ago the War Department decided not to abandon Fort Bidwell (Cal) Military Reservation because of representations made by James Peterson and others in that neighborhood that the Pine Indians were restless and the people around Fort Bidwell felt unsafe without military protection. Since deciding not to abandon the reservation, representations were made by army officers to the effect that there was absolutely no danger from the friendly Pine Indians, and that Fort Bidwell was a useless military reservation. Special Indian Agent Frank D. Lewis was detailed to investigate the real situation, and has made a report to the Interior Department, of which the following is an extract:

AGENT LEWIS' REPORT.

"In case of trouble Fort Bidwell would have a controlling influence over the country lying west of Pine Forest and Black Rock Mountains in Oregon. Last of these ranges troops could be more easily placed by way of Winnemucca, which is seventy-five miles south of old Fort McDowell, or from points on the Oregon short line in Idaho. The presence of troops at Fort Bidwell would, undoubtedly, hold in check both the Indians and lawless whites, and I must emphatically say that, in view of the general state of restlessness among the Indians all over the country, it is unwise to neglect any method that might be adopted to guard against trouble. I, therefore, recommend that Fort Bidwell be regarrisoned.

ASSISTING THE INDIANS.

"Some plan of assisting these people with food and clothing must be adopted, if they are ever to be turned into self-sustaining citizens, by means of gaining their livelihood by farming or stock-raising in the country they now live in. They must have patient training, and must be supplied with land and water. This land and water can only be obtained by purchase, for, as I have previously stated, all the available water has been appropriated. I recommend either that a sub-agency be established for these Indians or some officer from Fort Bidwell be specially delegated and instructed to look after their interests, and that measures be taken to secure lands for them, either by purchase or otherwise.

WHAT MIGHT BE DONE.

"In this connection I will say that while all the lands that can be irrigated from natural water sources are now in the hands of the whites, there are a number of tracts that could be made available if money could be had to develop water supplies. Further, some provision should be made for judiciously helping these Indians with food during portions of the year when they are unable to obtain work, thus obviating the necessity for their depredations on settlers' herds and homes. Some educational work should be undertaken. They are too scattered and live in too small bands to make it possible to start day schools among them, and I fear the task of securing the attendance of their children at training-schools is a monumental one, if not among one of those impossible to accomplish."

NEW HEBRIDES CANNIBALS

They Eat a French Trader and His Son and Also Three Executed Criminals.

A report received at London from the Commander of the British cruiser Royalist, which was sent by the Government to punish the natives of the New Hebrides for killing and eating a French trader and his son, tells of a most curious incident.

When the cruiser arrived at the scene an investigation was made, and three natives were found to be guilty and were executed. Immediately after the execution the natives asked that the bodies of the executed men be given to them, and the commander, supposing that the natives wished to obtain the remains for burial, gave them up.

The natives took the bodies of the three men a short distance away and at once made fires and proceeded to cook and eat the dead criminals. The British officers and men were horror-stricken at the sight, but did not feel called upon to interfere.

The consumptive patients in the Philadelphia Hospital have refused to permit themselves to be experimented upon with Professor Koch's lymph, and the men of science are agitated over the obstinacy which prevents them from carrying out a plan for which they had made every preparation.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The story is told of a man, who took the hands of his clock to the maker to have them fixed, because they did not keep proper time. Of course, the clock-maker demanded the work, as in them lay the trouble. Boils and pimples, and other eruptions on the exterior tell of a disordered condition of the blood within. If you have these indications, be wise in time, and take Dr. Wm. C. Golden's Medical Discovery. It purifies the liver and kidneys in food working order, purifies the blood, cleanses the system from all impurities, from whatever cause arising, and tones up the system generally. "Golden's Medical Discovery" checks the frightful uric acids of Scrofula, and, if taken in time, arrests the march of Consumption of the Lungs (which is Lung-Scrofula), and enriches the blood, thereby curing all Skin and Scalp Diseases, Ulcers, Sores, Swellings and kindred ailments. It is as safe as well as alternative, or blood-cleansing, in its effects, hence it strengthens the system and restores vitality, thereby dispelling all those languid, tired feelings experienced by the debilitated. It has manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Eczema, Erysipelas, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Goitre, or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands. "Golden's Medical Discovery" is the only blood and lung remedy, sold by druggists, and guaranteed by its manufacturer, to do all that it is claimed to accomplish, or money paid for it will be refunded. THE AUSTRALIAN BALLOT SYSTEM.

Senator LaGrave, of Humboldt, has introduced a bill to provide for the Australian or secret ballot system of voting in Nevada. It is entitled: "An Act Relating to Elections, and to More Fully Secure the Secrecy of the Ballot." As the bill has not yet been printed, and the Journal has not received a copy of it, we are unable to give a synopsis of it.

The necessity for a secret ballot is admitted by both political parties in Nevada, or at least, was conceded before election when the party representatives in convention assembled proclaimed the principles by which, if successful, they were to be governed.

The Republican State Convention, which assembled at Virginia City, September 4, 1890, adopted the following:

Resolved, That we are in favor of the Australian system of ballot.

The Democratic State Convention, which met at Reno, September 12, 1890, adopted the following resolution:

"We favor the Australian ballot system as enacted by the State of Massachusetts."

As every candidate for State and Legislative office solemnly pledged himself to carry out the principles of his party as laid down in the State platform, every member of the Legislature elected last November is obligated to vote for an Act to provide for the Australian system of voting in Nevada. There is no honorable way for members to evade the question. They indorsed every principle in the State platform of their respective parties, and to ignore in their official capacity what they pledged as candidates to do, would subject them to the contempt of every honorable citizen.

As it is not for a moment to be suspected that any member of the Nevada Legislature will be guilty of such perfidy as to vote against a measure which he pledged to support the Australian ballot system, in some form, is certain to be adopted in this State.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION VOTE.

There are men in the Legislature, and it is to be hoped a majority of the members are among the number, who believe in carrying out the will of the people who fairly expressed, regardless of the orders of the bosses or the "convincing" argument of the lobbyists. Washoe can proudly boast of probably five, but certainly two, of such men, one of whom—Senator Emmet—has introduced a resolution reciting the facts, that by authority of a joint resolution of the Legislature, adopted March 5th 1889, it was recommended to the electors of this State that they vote for or against the calling of a Constitutional Convention to revise the Constitution of the State of Nevada; that the electors of the State did vote on said question, so submitted; that the Board of Commissioners of the several counties canvassed said vote and caused abstracts thereof to be submitted to the Secretary of State as required by law; that the Supreme Court, or a majority thereof refused to canvass said vote; and therefore that a joint committee, consisting of the Senate and House Committees on Elections be authorized and directed to canvass said vote and declare the result to the Senate and Assembly.

There is nothing in this resolution to which any American citizen who believes in a government by and for the people can object, yet the general belief is that the power of the "bosses" and lobby will be used to defeat it, as for some cause, not known to the public, they are opposed to a Convention to revise the Constitution, arrogantly assume that the majority of the electors, who voted for such a Convention, did not know what they were doing.

A special from Ottawa, Canada, says: Despite denials, it is positively known that Blaine recently made overtures to the Canadian Government, with a view to establishing closer trade relations between the two countries. A Cabinet Minister to-night said he was not to divulge the condition of affairs. He had hopes, however, that the matters at issue between the two countries would be amicably settled.

Mrs. Mackay, the Bonanza Queen, who spends millions made in Nevada in Europe is now a leader of society in London and has leased a magnificent house in Carlton Terrace for the season. It is said that the house is in one of the sweetest localities in London. Mrs. Mackay's immediate neighbors will be Lord Pembroke and Brownlow. Matthews, the Home Secretary, lives directly opposite, and the Duke of Marlborough, Secretary Balfour and the German Ambassador are close at hand.

At the annual dinner of the Confederate Veterans' Camp in New York City, which was attended by prominent ex-Confederates from all parts of the Union, General Grant's name was cheered to the echo and the energy of every member pledged to complete his monument. "Let us have peace."

A vacancy will soon occur in the position of Register of Land Office at Carson City. Senator Stewart has telegraphed H. M. Yerington and Evan Williams to send the name of some one that the people would indorse for the position.

Boston business men assembled at Faneuil Hall at the call of Mayor Matthews, and formally protested against the free coinage of silver.

THE DEAD KING.

The Funeral Ceremonies to be Held To-day.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 21.—The casket containing the remains of King Kalakaua was removed this afternoon from the Palace Hotel to the mortuary chapel of Trinity Church. When the casket is received by Admiral Brown and staff at the Clay street wharf to-morrow it will be transferred with a delay to the Charleston by a Government steamer. Various invited guests and sail-bearers will accompany the casket to be Charleston, where it will be placed in position in the after barbettes, arranged to receive an eight-inch gun. Here the space will be built up and covered with the American and Hawaiian flags.

During the ceremonies to-morrow minute guns will be fired from the Charleston by order of Admiral Brown and from the Presidio and Alcatraz, by order of General Hibdon. It is probable that the only personal following to accompany the dead King back to Honolulu will consist of Colonel Macfarlane and Baker, of his staff, and the servants who attended him thither. Upon arriving at Honolulu the Charleston will fire minute guns during the debarkation.

Consul McKinley said this forenoon that unquestionably the arrival of the Charleston upon this mission would be a shock to the people of Honolulu. No one at Honolulu has known anything about the King's serious illness, he said, and the earlier advice since the arrival of the King here were all to the effect that his health was improving. There was a general display of bunting at half-mast all over the city to-day on public and private buildings. The flags of various governments floated at half-mast over all foreign Consulates. Flags were half-masted also on the Custom House, City Hall, Palace Hotel and Masonic Temple and on business houses and also on many vessels in the harbor. All these flags will fly at half-mast until the Charleston leaves the harbor to-morrow afternoon.

It has been arranged that the Charleston shall start as soon after the ceremony as convenient. She will lie off Clay street with steam up ready to go as soon as the Government vessel arrives bringing the casket. The early hour at which the services will be held at Trinity Church will enable her to get away long before dark, possibly by 4 o'clock, and her passage will unquestionably be watched down the bay and through the Gate by large crowds.

A flood of telegrams and letters containing condolences flowed in upon Colonel Macfarlane, the King's Chamberlain, to-day. Many citizens also called to tender sympathy.

Two dispatches were received this morning from the diplomatic representatives of the Hawaiian Government, one being from Mr. Hoffung, the Hawaiian Minister at London, and the other from Mr. Carter, the Hawaiian Minister at Washington, who came here recently to meet King Kalakaua and confer with him.

House Proceedings.

Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Another wave of excitement has just passed over the House. The Speaker, Mills and McKinley were the principal agitators, the latter declaring with emphasis that if necessary the House would stay in session until noon on the 4th of March in order to pass the bill which would give every citizen in this land his right to a free ballot and a fair count.

Cannon, of Illinois, from the Rules Committee reported a resolution providing that the previous question be considered as ordered on the District of Columbia Appropriation bill and a pending amendment, at 5 o'clock and moved the previous question on its adoption. It was ordered.

Bland moved to recommit the resolution with instructions to the Committee on Rules to report a resolution discharging the Committee on Coinage, Weights and Measures from further consideration of the Silver bill, and further providing that the bill shall be made a special order for the 27th of January.

The point in order against the resolution was sustained by the Chair. McMillan, Springer and others protested against the ruling but the Speaker refused to entertain their appeal, and also ruled out of order a motion by Springer to adjourn.

The Clerk proceeded to call the roll on the adoption of the resolution reported by Cannon and it resulted, yeas 153; nays 124; The House finally went into a Committee of the Whole on the District of Columbia Appropriation bill. After debate the committee rose and reported the bill to the House. While the result was being called on the amendment a body of Democrats left the hall, leaving a bare half dozen of their members. Result, no quorum voted and the Speaker being unable to note a quorum, the House adjourned.

Senate Proceedings.

Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, January 21.—In the Senate to-day, as soon as the journal of yesterday was read, Gorman moved to correct it by striking out the word stating that Aldrich's motion yesterday to proceed to the consideration of the resolution as to Closure was determined in the affirmative. He asserted that a ballot occurred and the result of the vote was never announced. He read from the Record to sustain his position, and expressed his belief that the Senate would not allow a journal to stand which declares a falsehood.

The Vice President said he had not formally declared the vote as carried, and would again submit the question. Ensis made a long speech against the Elections bill. He referred to the Boston riots against the fugitive slave law, and said that in no Southern State had there ever been such fierce opposition to a Federal law.

Hear replied to Ensis and quoted General Sheridan as saying that more men had been murdered in Louisiana because of their political opinions than had fallen on both sides during the Mexican War. Vest said if the Republican Senators passed the bill not five States would give them their electoral votes. Republican Senators were playing with edged tools and they might inflict a mortal wound on the South and on the whole country. At 6 o'clock a motion to adjourn was lost, no quorum being present.

Disposition of Troops at Pine Ridge.

Special to the Journal.

PINE RIDGE, January 21.—General Miles has defined the duties of army officers detailed to different agencies. It has been decided that the First Infantry of San Francisco and four troops of the Ninth Infantry (?) will remain at the agency after the main body of soldiers shall have been ordered home.

In regard to the criticism which General Miles' method of disarming the Indians evokes, that gentleman says the work proceeded satisfactorily, and he will continue to disarm them in his own way, and take his own time to do it.

Fire Damp Explosion.

Special to the Journal.

MARIETTA, Ill., January 21.—While a test for air was being made to-day in the O. K. mine, which was filled with fire damp, a terrific explosion occurred. Six miners were badly injured, and one, William Dobson, fatally. There were twenty-five men in the mine at the time, but fortunately, most of them in another part when the explosion occurred.

An Arkansas Tragedy.

Special to the Journal.

GARFIELD, January 21.—Near Rogers, Ark., yesterday, the Constable of that place was shot and killed, and Deputy Sheriff Wright was mortally wounded by two brothers named Sheppard, whom the officers were attempting to arrest for a murderous assault.

TICKS FROM THE TELEGRAPH.

Governor Hill was elected United States Senator by the Legislature of New York yesterday.

Senator Teller has been re-elected by the Colorado Legislature, an honor which he richly deserves.

Senator Vest has been re-elected in Missouri and Senator Cameron has been re-elected in Pennsylvania.

The JOURNAL is indebted to George Jamison of Hamilton's Mill, for a handsome paper weight from the Marble Works. It is a beautiful block of marble, highly polished, and a sample of the artistic workmanship of the marble cutters.

F., and Nevada Lodge No. 1, K. of P. He leaves a wife and child.

A Tale of a Cat.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL.

A Circus in the Senate—A Move to Change the Oath of Office.

CARSON CITY, N. V., Jan. 21, 1891.

EDITOR STATE JOURNAL: Mr. Logan will, on to-morrow, introduce a resolution in the Assembly that the "ghost dance," now going on in the other end of the Capitol be removed to the reservation.

The House is well organized and running smoothly. The Senate has postponed organization until next week, when the true Messiah is to appear. Something has to be done and if he doesn't come to their relief I am afraid they will tomahawk and scalp each other. It is intended on to-morrow to introduce a resolution to amend the Constitution and change the oath of office by striking out all about duelling, as there never was a man elected to office who had sand enough to fight, and insert instead:

"That I do solemnly swear that I will remain in the State at least 60 days after the expiration of my term of office."

Unless we do this our State will soon be depopulated.

UNFAIR CRITICISM.

It is generally supposed we have nothing to do, but if we do our duty no graver thoughts ever occupied the minds of men. The belief is we work but an hour a day, but that is a mistake; we must give ear to all. Start from the Capitol and you will be interviewed a dozen times before you get to a hotel. Members must exchange notes and compare ideas. Letters are received from all parts of the State asking one to do certain things and adjourn. Here is an illustration: I received a letter to-day asking me to secure a high license law, elect a United States Senator and then go home.

Another came from a different county, asking me to repeal the 12 o'clock saloon law, and adjourn. No use of being in session over twenty days. A third, asking the repeal or modification of all the laws from the organization of the State to the present time, and adjourn in twenty days.

Do not criticize unjustly, we are all hard at work, and the growlers should consider that all citizens have the same right to be heard.

If we answer all their letters it will take the sixty days. We changed a law with a resolution—a thing that was never done before—(extra smart); we reduced the pay of Chaplain a dollar a day. The ministers submitted to their fate with Christian humiliation; not like us ungodly people.

They did not go on a strike as we do when our wages are reduced.

A MEMBER.

THE BLISS-DUNPHY WATER SUIT.

One of the Most Expensive and Important Ever Tried in Nevada.

The Bliss water suit is being tried before Judge Fitzgerald in the District Court at Winnemucca. It was brought to abate a nuisance by an order of Court for the removal of certain dams in the Humboldt river above the Bliss ranch. It is of great importance to ranchers on the Humboldt, west of Beowawe, the plaintiff claiming the right to the water by virtue of prior appropriation of the same. The plaintiff's counsel in the case are Meesick & Pheasant, of San Francisco, and Judge W. S. Bonfield, of Winnemucca, and counsel for the defendants are General R. M. Clarke, of Carson, Judge Meredith, of San Francisco, and J. F. Dennis, of Battle Mountain. It is one of the most expensive suits ever tried in Humboldt county, the average cost being about $500 per day. Several surveyors, two stenographers and two or more copyists, are engaged in reporting and transcribing the testimony and witnesses have been brought from California, Montana and several parts of Nevada to testify on one side or the other. It has been before the Court now about 48 days and the costs amount to about $25,000.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.

"HEAP MAD" PIUTE.

Johnson Sides Refutes Bill Nye's Slander.

Johnson Sides, the noted Piute, who sings hymns like a Christian, and talks with the volubility of a patent medicine vendor, called at the JOURNAL office yesterday to deny the allegations of Mr. Bill Nye that he, Johnson Sides, is dishonest or attempts to palm himself off on unsophisticated red men, as an Indian Messiah, with supernatural knowledge or powers. Johnson says there are hundreds of white men, who have known him for the last thirty years, who will testify to his honesty and good behavior. Dick Sides, one of the first locators of the Comstock, who bought Johnson, who was left an orphan when a small boy, and whose mother inculcated upon the mind of the young heathen the principles of christianity, and taught him to sing hymns instead of war songs, says he entrusted Johnson once with $1,100 in coin, while he made a trip to California, and in the ten years in which Johnson lived with him he never knew him to do anything dishonest. Johnson thinks it is very doubtful if Mr. Bill Nye who so unjustly assailed and misrepresented him, could give as good recommendations as he can, and all who see the pictures of Mr. Nye in the Examiner will admit that Johnson is about right.

INDIGNANT SOLDIERS.

The Tuscarora Guards on the War Path.

An item published in the Times-Review, and as it now appears, intended for a joke, created the impression among outsiders that the Tuscarora Guards had disbanded at the first intimation of an Indian outbreak, lest they might be ordered to the front. Several papers have since adverted somewhat severely upon the alleged unsoldierly conduct of the Guards, who now show that they had no idea of disbanded and prove in a card in the Times-Review of last Saturday that they are decidedly belittled.

That the Guards are as brave as frontiersmen generally, there is no reasonable doubt, and as brave men, they cannot blame the newspapers for severely condemning what they were led to believe was very cowardly conduct.

The JOURNAL takes pleasure in correcting the erroneous impression that the Guards were disbanded and disgraced, and believes that in justice to the Company the Times-Review should apologize for publishing in its issue of the 9th instant the statement "that a number of the members, doubtless affected by the Indian craze, had sent in their resignations."

BUSINESS LOCALS.

Skates at Lange & Schmitt's.

For a good cigar, call on Fred Strassburg.

For fine boots and shoes go to H. F. Pavola.

Go to Jack Fraser's market for nice fresh meats of all kinds.

For a first-class meal and fresh oysters in every style go to the Palace Restaurant.

Meals at all hours.

It is not quite as dull as some people think. The White House is selling more overcoats than ever.

Go to Lange & Schmitt for heating stoves, cook stoves, ranges and house furnishing goods. Largest variety and best values.

For your note, letter, legal and foolscap paper, patronize C. J. Brookins, who also carries writing tablets of all styles and sizes.

The Palace Hotel, which is well and favorably known to every old Nevada, is being conducted as usual by that veteran landlord, Al White, who spares neither pains nor purses to provide for the comfort and convenience of guests.

The price of the JOURNAL to city subscribers, delivered by carrier, will henceforth be fifteen cents a week, payable to the carrier. This, considering that it furnishes the very latest news by telegraph, makes the JOURNAL the cheapest paper in Nevada.

Farahan's patent stove pipe drums are just the thing for this cold weather. They save at least one-fourth of the fuel used, and distribute the heat through the room instead of having it escape through the chimney. They are worth ten times what they cost where fuel is high, and they save the labor of putting wood or coal in the stove where it is cheap. Hume Yerington has the agency for the coast, and Joseph H. Cowan, who stops at the Clarendon, represents him in this section.

TROUBLE.
There is sorrow that causes the world to reprove;
There is grief in the world, little man,
It will not grow too happy in your time or mine
If we make some one glad when we can.

There are tears—far more plenty than spring's early flowers—
We may find them wherever we go;
Let us heed that no look, word or action of ours
Will cause even one more to flow.

There is trouble enough in the world, little maid,
There is trouble enough and to spare;
Let's keep ours to ourselves, we need not be afraid
That the others will not have a share.
—Ruth Day in Housekeepers' Weekly

Hints for a Bachelor.
An infant may be as old as Methusalem or as young as a baby ephemeron for all you can tell. Now, you need just one suggestion to help you out. It is this: If the baby is in long clothes call it a year old. It won't be, but that's part of the diplomacy. If it's in short clothes and can't talk call it 5 years. It won't be that, but that's more diplomacy.
If it can talk call it anywhere from 8 to 8 years old.

This is the course which things may then be confidently expected to take:
The mother proudly exhibits her offspring. Bearing in mind the rules here laid down you say of a long skirted youngster, "What a remarkably developed child for one year old!"

"But it's really only six months, you know," answers the mother, indigently unmindful of your mistake because of the flattery it implies.

In the case of a short skirted, non-locomotive youngster you will be safe in saying, "Isn't this a wonderfully fine baby for one four or five years old?" You may be years out of physical reckoning again, but the mother will soon see that it is the precocity of the infant that has mildred you, and as before she will pardon much.

Remember this as you would the Ten Commandments: Always add to the age of a baby and subtract from the age of its mother. No matter how far astray you may go it will never be treasured up against you.—New York Evening Sun.

No Need of "Beauty Sleep."
It is all nonsense about "beauty sleep"
coming in the hours before midnight,
and that the rosy cheek on the country lass is the reward for retiring at the time when the proverbially pale faced city girl's evening commences. The late hours of fashionable life would not necessarily scatter the roses from the cheek if the late hour for retiring could be the same every night without variation. It is irregular hours and meals that cause pale and haggard faces. The handsomest couple I ever saw retired regularly at 11:30, and always indulged in a light lunch just before retiring. They were both pictures of health.

The lady did not look over 25, though she never hesitated to say that she was 38 years old, and the husband looked at least ten years younger than he really was. They were both devotees to the laws of health. For years they had allowed nothing to interfere with the regularity of sleeping and eating hours.
Almost the midnight hour was chosen for retiring, because it allowed them evenings at the theatre and an hour or so at even the most fashionable receptions. When alone in their home they never indulged in an earlier hour.—Chicago Herald.

Advice for Speakers.
One of the common mistakes made by the tyro in public speaking is that of exhausting his subject and his audience at the same time. By too great discursiveness the pith of the subject is lost, and what might have been a victory is turned into signal defeat. To save such a disaster one should think carefully upon any subject before attempting to talk upon it, and in the thinking keep strictly to the salient points and the simplest possible form of giving them expression.

Only the born orator, the genius, may safely venture into the flower garden of speech and indulge in glowing and highly colored perorations. To the ordinary speaker close attention to facts and simple statement in well chosen and convincing language are the safest and surest means of winning golden opinions for self and success for one's cause at the same time.—Jennett-Miller Magazine.

Twenty years ago no photograph was more often seen than that of President Lincoln sitting with a big book on his knee, and his little son Tad leaning against him and looking at it with him.
The book was then thought to be a Bible, but it wasn't. It was Photographer Brady's picture album, which the president was examining with his son while some ladies stood by. The artist begged the president to remain quiet, and the picture was taken.

Sailors are a bowlegged class. An old sail always walks as if he were on the deck of a ship, and he never takes great strides like a landsman. He is used to having to walk great distances, in his imagination, on the quarter deck, and he can't get rid of the habit of making the most of his promenade.

A new leather dressing is a stuffing or filling compound in which are employed neatsfoot oil, beeswax, extract of log-wood, borax, castile soap and other ingredients, in specified proportions, in order to soften and polish as well as preserve leather.

Senator Morrill, in spite of his 80 years, is devoted heart and soul to the improvement of the Capitol building at Washington. It is to him that is to be given the credit for the beautiful terraces which add so much of elegance and beauty to the Capitol building.

Banker Isidor Wormser, of New York, probably spends as much money for cigars during a day as any other man in the city. He smokes from fifteen to twenty cigars a day. The Perfectos is his favorite brand and they cost him twenty cents apiece.
